

Busy Olsens

The Olsen twins, Mary-Kate and Ashley, the pint-sized actresses who rose to fame with their portrayal of Michelle on ABC's "Full House," will use that show to launch their new series of video tapes.

At the end of next the Sept. 13 program (8 p.m.), the twins will star in a music video touting "The Adventures of Mary-Kate and Ashley," a detective video series starring the duo as, you guessed it, supersleuths.

Also, the pair are starring in a half-hour special on the making of the video series, which ABC will air on Saturday, Sept. 17, at 9 a.m.

"The Adventures of Mary-Kate and Ashley" stars the sisters as "Trenchcoat Twins" who promise to "solve any crime by dinner time." Two half-hour episodes of the series are being released on Sept. 13, along with a companion album of original music. Additional installments will be available in the spring.

— R.H.